5:210 Resignations

Teachers may resign at any time with consent of the Executive Board. No teacher may resign during the school term in order to accept another teaching position without the consent of the Executive Board. A teacher may resign outside of a school term if the teacher provides written notice to the secretary of the Executive Board, at least 30 calendar days prior to the first student attendance day of the following school year. Teachers who resign with less than 30 days' notice prior to the first student attendance day of the following school term will be deemed to have resigned during the school term.

Probationary certified employees may resign during their contract period only with the Executive Board's consent.
